New York, 24.—Governments ½ per cent. lower for 4½; coupons otherwise unchanged. There was an advancing market for elocite up to 11.30, at which time prices were generally ½ to ½ higher than last night. Later Burlington and Quincy and Central Pacific were exceptionally strong and advanced 1 per cent. over last night, closing at 75½. Contrary to somewhat general expectation the governing committee decided not to close the exchange during any part of the usual hour for business, notwithstanding the general holiday. After 12.30 the market was extremely dull, and about 1 o'clock prices began to sag from neglect of the market. After 2 the market was very dull. In the first haif hour there was an advance of ½ to ½, and in the last half hour nearly an equal decline.
